

THE PRINCE OF NEW ORLEANS

Plain and simple, Davell Crawford is one of the most talented musicians alive!

-Bill Taylor, Blues Access

It is impossible to hear more than the first two minutes of Crawford without smiling and breaking into some serious foot tapping. There's just no other way to describe it, unless, of course, you're dead

-Chuck Graham, Tucson Citizen

How can you have a Roots Music Festival without Davell Crawford, he's the undisputed Prince of New Orleans Piano!!!

-John Sinclair, Blues Access Magazine

DAVELL CRAWFORD

Davell Crawford, an all-around musical sensation, is one of the true wonders of the contemporary Crescent City music scene. Known as the "Prince of New Orleans," Davell is one of the city's most exciting live performers, and is already established as a major force in American Roots music. He actively tours, records, and teaches, spreading the sounds and styles of not only New Orleans music, but traditional jazz, gospel, funk and R&B as well. Davell is one of the few New Orleans musicians committed both to preserving the traditional piano sounds of New Orleans and advancing the future of the music with his unique style and infectious energy.
